"The Skye Boat Song" tells the story of Bonnie Prince Charlie escaping to Skye following his defeat at the Battle of Culloden in 1746. Over 170 musicians including 9 choirs came together to voice their protest in this iconic song. Alternatively the song can be performed gently as a lullaby, or in instrumental form in waltz tempo. The Latin text in the song refers to the concept of baptism, whereby the spiritual traveller goes through the waters of turmoil representing death to come to a place of safety and restoration. It is common practice to sing or play the verse a little louder than the chorus. "The Skye Boat Song" is unusual because, although the chorus is in a major key, the verse is in the relative minor key with generally darker lyrics. Although the song structure is the same, her melody is sufficiently different that it might be described as an original song. (The purchased PDF also includes a separate piano score.) The lyrics were penned by Sir Harold Boulton in the 1870s, and the melody was written down by Annie MacLeod based on a Gaelic rowing song she had heard in Skye called "Cuachag Nan Craobh" meaning "The Cuckoo in the Grove".
